President Corkran, of the Middle Atlantic Association, has announced that he will not appoint a committee on advancement this year, as has been the custom in the past. This committee has been made up of a member from each club, and its duties have been to do all it can toward keeping up golf interest in the association and boosting the game as much as possible.

Dear Sir: Complying with your request for a statement of my case of LOCOMOTOR ATAXIA, I will say that about sixteen years ago I was taken with this disease. The first five years I doctored with several physicians for muscular and sciatic rheumatism. At last I was told that I had an incurable case of LOCOM I had an incurable case of LOCO-MOTOR ATAXIA, and that I might live several years by taking good care of myself.

At the end of eleven years I had lost my eyesight and the entire use of my lower limbs, and was confined to my bed for the next year and a half.

About this time, in answer to your adv. in a Washington daily, my wife called to see you. Since that time you are acquainted with the history of my case, but for the benefit of suffering humanity, and especially those who have lost all faith in doctors. I make this additional statement to prove this disease can be cured.
